Traced Location in Canada

Frederick William Langton and Frances Edith Lane raised their seven children on a small turtle-shaped island in the great lakes region of Ontario. It will be interesting to see how they were recorded in the 1921 Census of Canada, which will finally be released by Statistics Canada to Library and Archives Canada (LAC) on 01 Jun 2013.

- Frederick William Langton wife Frances Edith Lane

*Thomas Langton's uncle was William Langton of Bennington, South Lincolnshire, England. He was buried on 24 Jun 1596 at St. Bartholomew's, The Exchange, London.

The "Langtons of Barrie Island, Ontario" are distantly related to the "Langtons of Regina, Saskatchewan" thru their most recent common ancestor Walter Langton (wife Martha Brice). Refer to my article "Langtons of Regina, Saskatchewan" for further details.

The "Langtons of Barrie Island, Ontario" are more closely related to the "Langtons of Pincher Creek, Alberta" thru their most recent common ancestor Joseph Langton (wife Catherine Pitt). Frederick William came to Canada at about the same time as his 2nd cousin 1x removed Lionel Alfred. Refer to my articles "Langtons of Pincher Creek, Alberta" for details regarding Lionel Alfred Langton's Family.
